

Father's Blessing to my Son

I bless the time of your conception with a father's blessing, you are wanted. You are not a mistake, you were not an accident. You are wanted as a son.

I bless the first trimester in your mother's womb. You were wanted as a son, you are accepted, and you are not rejected.

I bless the second trimester in your mother's womb. You are loved, and you are not a mistake. You are not a burden. You are wanted as a son; you are not abandoned. You are blessed.

I bless the third trimester in your mother's womb; you are loved and wanted as a son. I break any curses off of you, and I call your spirit to life. You are wanted and loved as a son. I bless you.

I bless the day of your birth as a son, and I say that you are a blessing. You are not a problem, and you are wanted as a son. I bless you with a father's blessing.

I break any and all curses from you. I call your spirit to life as a son. No curse formed against you can prosper. I break off the spirit of death. All spirits of bondage and fear must release you in Jesus' name!

I bless all the years of your childhood; I say that there are no wrong ways in you. You are not abandoned.

I bless all your years as a teenager, I say that you are not a burden, you are not rejected or abandoned; you are loved and accepted.

I bless all your days as an adult, I say that you are loved as a son, you are wanted and loved. You are not rejected or abandoned; you are blessed and accepted.

I speak all good blessings into you as a son. I call your spirit to life, breaking every curse against you. I speak life into you, and I call your spirit to abundant life. I say that you will rise up and not fall down.

I bless you my son!

I love you, Dad
